Tense and voice. The Sanskrit language includes five tenses; next year, past perfect, past aorist and past perfect. It outlines three types of voices: active, future, passive and the middle. The middle is also referred to as the mediopassive, or more formally in Sanskrit as paramaipada (word for another) and atmanepada (word for oneself). Past Perfect Tense Active Passive Tense Examples. In the past, active or passive sentences can be created with the use of perfect tense. In order to do this, you need to use the phrase had been used while editing the sentences. In this way, you give the sentence the meaning of the requested time. Let's look at the example below. Past Continuous Worksheet 2 - an introduction to past continuous tense (using the word "when") Past Continuous Worksheet 3 - more practice with past continuous tense (using the words "while/as") Past Continuous Worksheet 4 - fill in the blanks to complete the past continuous tense sentences.
